

Thomas Tallman Story 1

Thomas Tallman Comes to Town.

In the odd little town of Oddity lived simple folk of all shapes and sizes.

Some more odd than others.

But none quite as odd as the new kid...

...Thomas.

Thomas was tall.

Really tall.

Really really tall.

Like his Mum and Dad, the Tallman's.

Thomas couldn't wait to go to school and make new friends.

But the town was not quite built for Thomas.

The school was not quite built for Thomas.

He spent his time inside looking out.

Wishing he could fit in.

Wishing that they could all fit together.

Thomas liked to make his shapes fit together.

He liked his star cookies, his moon cookies, and his sun cookies.

They all fit together in the sky. And in his tummy.

Thomas was sad.

"Why the long face?" asked Mrs. Tallman.

“For every problem there is a solution.”

She handed Thomas a book.

The book that would change his life forever!

[How to Build the Perfect Home by Prof. Zippy B.]

“Cool!” said Thomas.

He buried his nose in the book of Math and found a way to fix every problem, one problem at a time.

The long and short of it was that there was no problem too big or too small after Thomas Tallman moved into the odd little town of Oddity.
